

St. Petersburg, 27 October 9 November 1847

Dear Mrs. Parlow,

being such a long time without any news from You I could easily foresee some disagreeableness with Gross; I saw by Your last letter, I did not make a mistake. — I am still glad that You have a fine protector in Mr.
Byörnson ~~to~~ who will bring the case to a favorable end for You. —

Of course, I am very anxious to know all about it, by and by. —

The girls getting on very well, working hard, only Miss Harrison is yet in Berlin, afraid of the Cholera. — In a few days I am leaving for a tour in the South, 12 concerts in three weeks.

So I send the Orchestral Parts of my Tarantelle through to Warsaw. — You will find them at the Piano Depot. Herman & Grossman; the chief of the house is a friend of mine; every body will tell you his address. — Misfortunately, the Editor never printed the Partitur and keep the original till now; I shall write him to send you the Partitur; if not a good conductor will

For my returning I hope to find some news from you. — My love to Kathleen; Affectionately Harry J. Davis conduct it from the Piano part. — Kathleen must ask only to accompany as Piano as possible.

For England, I should like to see Kathleen would play several times at London before making the Provinces. — The new Agent ought to give two-three Recitals with her, and afterwards try a few Provincial Towns. — I shall be in Town here the $\frac{23}{6}$ November December.
